Why did the victors not get everything they wanted?

It was impossible for all the victors to get what they wanted because they had very different aims. Any agreement would have to be a compromise.

Firstly, Clemenceau's anger clashed with Wilson's idealism as Wilson didn't want to punish Germany too severely. They argued over what to do with Germany's Rhineland and the coalfields in the Saar. They also clashed over the amount of reparations with Wilson feeling they were much too severe.

Furthermore, Clemenceau argued with Lloyd George because he felt Britain had very selfish aims. Clemenceau felt George was happy to be fair in Europe but not over its empire if Africa. He remarked, 'If the British are so anxious to appease Germany they should look overseas and make colonial concessions'.

- Could The Treaties Be Justified?

'Severe as the treaty may seem to many Germans, it should be remembered that Germany might have been treated much worse if Clemenceau has his way.

'The best they could have hoped for

"The historians, with every justification will come to the conclusion that we were very stupid men."

'It was a peace of revenge. It sowed a thousand seeds from which new wars might be sprung. It was as though the devil had sat beside Clemenceau and whispered into the ear of George and grinned across

Key Points - Could the treaties be justified?

Much too harsh - bitterness and outrage in Germany

British public demanded payback - ' Make Germany Pay

Treaties left millions out pf their natural homeland

France had been invaded and massive damage in WW1

The German treatment of Russia (Brest Litovsk)

The treaties caused economic collapse

The League of Nations would stop future wars

Very Different Aims / War Experiences

Led to clash of aims - compromise needed. E.g - Revenge V Idealism

Huge task - historical problems E.g redrawing boundaries - Balkans complex.

Higher Aims

Had to consider - future world peace /security Not just self interest of own country.

Treaties NOT Justified

A 'peace of revenge '... would ( and did ) cause future conflict.

- Too much of France's anger into Versailles - neither 'just nor wise'.

Ruined economies that led to social + political unrest.

- Germany = hyperinflation. Many countries could / did not pay.

Millions out of their homelands.

- Europe sliced up 'like a cake' - e.g. Sudeten Germans.

'It was as though the devil had sat beside Clemenceau and whispered into the ear of George and grinned across the table at Wilson'. British Historian, 1929.
